

ALL ABOUT...

CARYS & GEORGE

Fill in the gaps using the words below. The first one has been done for you.

Carys is ten years old and her brother is _____. They both have a _____ disorder called _____. It means their arms and legs are _____ than other people's. The _____ of their body is normal length.

When Carys and George's mum was growing up, she could not see out of her bedroom _____, so all the windows in Carys and George's house are _____ than in standard houses.

People _____ at Carys, George and their parents because they look _____. Being stared at _____ Carys and _____ George.

Even if someone offered George "a _____ bucks" he would not change who he is.

upsets

shorter

ten

window

lower

thirteen

stare

annoys

trunk

different

genetic

million

achondroplasia

FOR MORE RESOURCES, GO TO WWW.JEANSFORGENES.ORG

CREATED IN COLLABORATION WITH

nowgen

A Centre for Genetics in Healthcare

