

ALL ABOUT ASHLEY

Fill in the gaps using the words below. The first one has been done for you.

Ashley is eleven years old. He has a _____ condition called _____ syndrome. It means that the _____ and other structures in his _____ and neck did not form properly before he was born. His condition will not get _____ as he grows up.

People who have genetic conditions are _____ with them. Their children may _____ the condition too.

Ashley has very small _____ and uses two hearing _____. He sometimes struggles to hear in class because it is too _____.

When Ashley was at primary school he was _____ because of the way he looked. At _____ school he is getting on well and has a group of _____.

Ashley has been offered _____ on his ears, but he said _____. He says he is _____ as he is. Ashley's mum describes him as "a _____ child who just happens to look _____".

Ashley loves _____. He particularly likes _____ songs.

- bullied
- bones
- born
- different
- singing
- Frank Sinatra
- ears
- happy
- noisy
- friends
- head
- normal
- genetic
- aids
- secondary
- surgery
- Treacher Collins
- eleven
- worse
- no
- inherit

FOR MORE RESOURCES, GO TO WWW.JEANSFORGENES.ORG