MON 18 - SUN 24 SEPT 2023

Ts & Cs

Listen up: it's important.

1. This sweepstake is an exempt lottery underling the Gambling Act 2005 and is promoted by:

Print name of person organising sweepstake here:

-----
Please print your name here

2. This sweepstake is only for use within the UK only.

3. The promoter and the entrants must be 18 or over.

4. Your sweepstake must be conducted as either a workplace lottery, residents lottery or private society lottery and operated in accordance with the relevant rules listed. A workplace or residents lottery means that people are only eligible to enter if they either work in the same premises as the promote or live in the same premises as the promoter. A private society lottery means that people are only eligible to enter if they are either pat of the same society or group (provided it has not been established for gambling purposes) or if they enter into the sweepstakes on the premises of that society or group.

5. You may only display this poster or advertise the sweepstake on the premises relevant to the lottery you are operating (the bit before this bit).

6. A promoter of a private society lottery must have written permission from their relevant group or society (i.e. the boss agrees)

7. The rights of any entrant are not transferrable to any other person (and any attempt to transfer them will be treated as ineffective).

8. Each entrant agrees that, if they win, the promoter will donate the money collected to Jeans for Genes on behalf of the winner.

9. The promoter is responsible for ensuring that this sweepstake is run properly - Jeans for Genes are not promoters and do not accept any responsibility for your sweepstake.

That's it. That's the legal bit done.
