

Genetic Facts Sweepstake

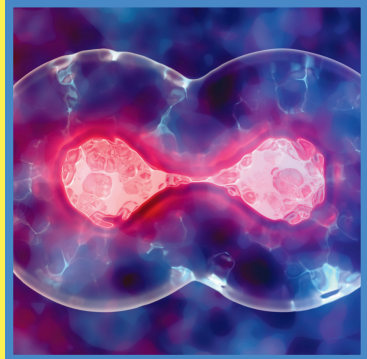

Mon 14 – Sun 20 Sept

- PICK a fantastic organiser to plan event and ask people for a £2.50 donation to play
- FIND a prize for the winner – could be a gift basket, voucher, cup of tea or extra day holiday
- WRITE your name on your genetic fact* (* its a bit of fun and we take no responsibility for accuracy)
- VISIT jeansforgenes.org on Mon 28 September 2026 for the winning item reveal
- AWARD the triumphant winner a prize and pay in the money, via your Just Giving page or online at jeansforgenes.org/donate

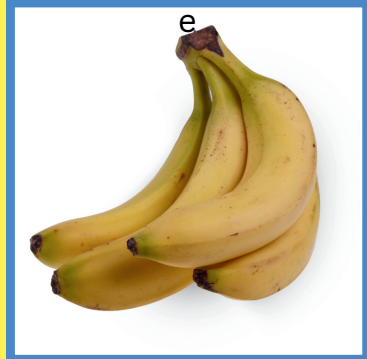

Donate
£2.50

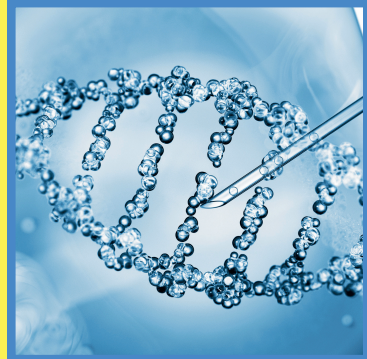

DNA
Our genetic code

Cell Division
The process of making new body cells

Banana
We share 60% of our genetic code with a banana

Gene Editing
The process of editing DNA sequence

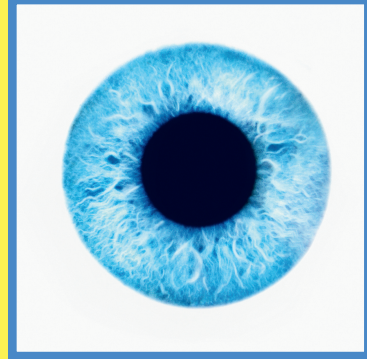

Monkey
Our DNA is around 98% the same as a monkey

Genetics
Genetics is the study of Genes

Genetic Research
The study of genes and how they relate to traits & disease

Blue Eyes
Originated from a single genetic mutation

DNA Finger Print
We all have a unique DNA finger print

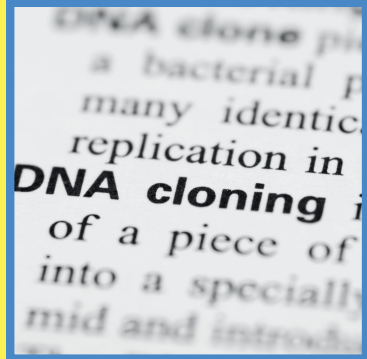

Worms
Worms have 21% of their DNA identical to humans

Jeans
Wear Jeans this September for J4G day

Twins
Identical twins share the same DNA

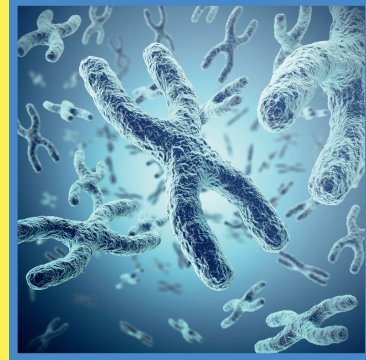

DNA Cloning
Scientists can now clone sections of DNA

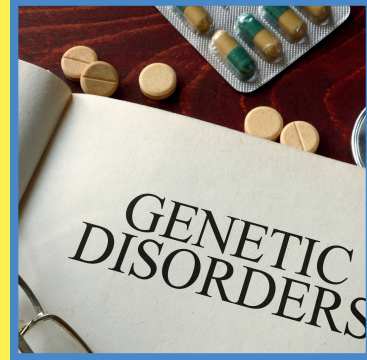

DNA Building Blocks
Nucleotides are the building blocks of DNA

DNA From Parents
We inherit 50% of our DNA from each parent

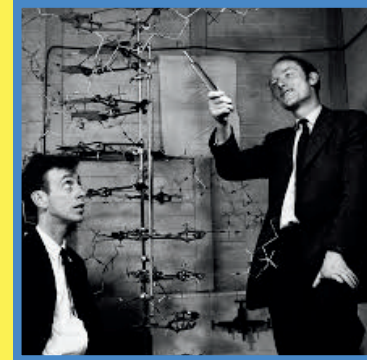

Chromosomes
We have 46 chromosomes, arranged in 23 pairs

Genetic Disorders
Can be caused by a mutation in a Gene

Jeans for Genes
Wear jeans, Change Lives

Watson & Crick
Discovered the DNA double helix

Plants
Also contain DNA and share some the same as ours

T's and C's

Listen up: it's important.

1. This sweepstake is an exempt lottery underling the Gambling Act 2005 and is promoted by:

Print name of person organising sweepstake here:

Please print your company name here

Please print your name here

2. This sweepstake is only for use within the UK only.

3. The promoter and the entrants must be 18 or over.

4. Your sweepstake must be conducted as either a workplace lottery, residents lottery or private society lottery and operated in accordance with the relevant rules listed. A workplace or residents lottery means that people are only eligible to enter if they either work in the same premises as the promote or live in the same premises as the promoter. A private society lottery means that people are only eligible to enter if they are either pat of the same society or group (provided it has not been established for gambling purposes) or if they enter into the sweepstakes on the premises of that society or group.

5. You may only display this poster or advertise the sweepstake on the premises relevant to the lottery you are operating (the bit before this bit).

6. A promoter of a private society lottery must have written permission from their relevant group or society (i.e. the boss agrees)

7. The rights of any entrant are not transferrable to any other person (and any attempt to transfer them will be treated as ineffective).

8. Each entrant agrees that, if they win, the promoter will donate the money collected to Jeans for Genes on behalf of the winner.

9. The promoter is responsible for ensuring that this sweepstake is run properly - Jeans for Genes are not promoters and do not accept any responsibility for your sweepstake.

That's it. That's the legal bit done.

Let the fundraising begin!

